

MELINE BARSEGHYAN

Profile

I am a future Web developer. I have been interested in the programming for a long time. Now I'm on childcare leave.

During this period, I have taken the opportunity to learn and acquire a new profession. I'm always in for learning new stuff, seeking to improve and grow as a professional and as a person. Right now I am in the seek of an internship position or an entry level position with an exciting company.
